YALE UNIVERSITY CLASS OF 1964

March, 2014

Dear '64 Classmates & Friends!

We are delighted to invite you to join us this coming May for the Fiftieth Reunion of the Class of 1964. For well over a year, your reunion committee has been planning an ambitious, thought-provoking program. While we hope that each of you will find compelling reasons to return to New Haven, here are some of ours.

1. We look forward to re-connecting with classmates with whom we studied and played during a time when we were all teenagers. Although we have chosen divergent routes and fortune has dealt us a myriad of hands, we recall the four important years we spent together during a time in our lives when we were young, idealistic and more than a little naïve about our futures. The Class Book we received in February has given us a glimpse into the lives and minds of many of us since those innocent days, and our reunion promises ample opportunity to renew our old friendships and to forge new ones in an atmosphere of warm conviviality.
2. The programs arranged by your reunion committee promise to be provocative, enlightening, and entertaining. As you will see in the accompanying pamphlet, we have planned a variety of presentations, many of which ask the central questions: "How the hell did we get into this mess? And where do we go from here?" We ask these questions with respect to the central issues that have dominated our lives during the past fifty years and continue to pose formidable challenges. Virtually all of our presenters are members of the Class of 1964.
3. In addition to our class programs, Yale will offer numerous programs and activities for all reunion classes which are designed to showcase the breadth and depth of opportunities for current and future students, including workshops, lectures, an address by our new President, Peter Salovey, and the traditional concert in Woolsey Hall.
4. In a refreshing departure from times when we sat passively while others performed, our reunion is designed to be participatory. From the golf outing on May 28 to informal sessions following each of the presentations; from singing at the class Memorial Service to the display of classmates' books and art, each of us will be able to contribute his own ideas and opinions. On Saturday afternoon a dozen classmates will speak of their passions and deeply felt concerns in a series of six minute presentations covering a variety of subjects.

5. The Class Memorial Service remains a special event at our reunions. This year we are planning to remember our departed classmates in a dignified, non-denominational service in Battell Chapel. We also have extended a warm welcome to the widows of deceased classmates, and we are expecting many of them to join us. The reunion fee and the cost of campus housing is waived for any widow who attends the reunion.

The accompanying pamphlet provides comprehensive information concerning logistics for our reunion. Here are some highlights:

Registration: You may fill out and return the form in the pamphlet; alternatively you may register for the reunion online at www.aya.yale.edu/reunions.

Costs: The cost for the full reunion is $450 per person. However, those who register by March 31 can take advantage of our special Early-Bird Fee of $350. (Paper registration forms must be postmarked March 31 or earlier.) As you will note in the pamphlet, for those who can only attend for one or two days, fees will be pro-rated on a daily basis. Financial assistance is available on a confidential basis for those unable to pay the full costs of the reunion. (Please contact Jennifer Julier at the AYA at 203-436-8014 or jennifer.julier@yale.edu.)

Lodging at Hotels: As of this writing, the downtown hotels are fully booked, but there is still room at La Quinta Inn on Long Wharf, which is served by the reunion shuttle. As we get closer to our gathering in New Haven, rooms at the downtown hotels may open up, so do keep trying – or ask to be put on a wait list.

Lodging in Davenport: Rooms will be available in Davenport College, our headquarters, beginning on Thursday night. You may also stay in the air-conditioned New Residence Hall near the gymnasium. You may reserve your on-campus housing when you register online or fill out the enclosed form.

Lodging on Tuesday or Wednesday: Those arriving on Tuesday or Wednesday and planning to stay in a reunion hotel on the weekend should contact the hotel to extend your stay at the favorable reunion rate. Those who plan to use on-campus housing may choose to stay on Tuesday and/or Wednesday night at one of the reunion hotels. Another option is the Clarion Hotel in Hamden (203-288-3831), where we have negotiated a rate of $109/night. You must reserve by May 13th and mention the “Class of 1964” when you call.

Entertainment: Count on convivial conversations during dinners and social events, the Bales-Gitlin dance band on Saturday night, and frequent appearances by all thirteen of the Whiffenpoofs of 1964.

We hope this packet entices you to join us in May, and we look forward to seeing all of you then!
