Organ Prelude Adagio for Strings

Samuel Barber

Opening Hymn “O God, Beneath Thy Guiding Hand”

Duke Street

1. O God, beneath thy guiding hand
our exiled forebears crossed the sea;
and when they trod the wintry strand,
with prayer and psalm they worshiped thee.
2. Thou heard'st, well pleased, the song, the prayer:
thy blessing came; and still its power
shall onward, through all ages, bear
the memory of that holy hour.
3. Laws, freedom, truth, and faith in God
came with hose exiles o'er the waves;
and where their pilgrim feet have trod,
the God they trusted guards their graves.
4. And here thy name, O god of love,
their children's children shall adore,
till these eternal hills remove,
and spring adorns the earth no more.

Psalm 121

All I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills;
From whence cometh my help?

All My help cometh even from the Lord,
who hath made heaven and earth.

All He will not suffer thy foot to be moved,
and he that keepeth thee will not sleep.

All Behold, he that keepeth Israel
shall not slumber nor seep.

All The Lord himself is thy keeper;
the Lord is thy defense at thy right hand;

All So the sun shall not burn thee by day,
neither the moon by night.

All The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil;
yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.

All The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in,
From this time forth for evermore.

Reading from the Book of Ecclesiasticus 44:1-10

Let us now sing the praises of famous men,
our ancestors in their generations.

The Lord apportioned to them great glory,
his majesty from the beginning.

There were those who ruled in their
kingdoms,
and made a name for themselves by their
valor;

Those who gave counsel because they were intelligent;
those who spoke in prophetic oracles;

Those who led the people by their counsels
and by their knowledge of the people's lore;
they were wise in their words of
instruction;

Those who composed musical tunes,
or put verses in writing;

Rich men endowed with resources,
living peacefully in their homes –

All these were honored in their generations,
and were the pride of their times.

Some of them have left behind a name,
so that others declare their praise.

But of others there is no memory;
they have perished as though they had never
existed;

They have become as though they had never
been born,
they and their children after them.

But these also were godly men, whose righteous deeds have not been forgotten.

Mourner's Kaddish (Hebrew Memorial Prayer)

Let the glory of God be extolled, let His great name be hallowed, in the world whose creation He willed. May his kingdom soon prevail, in our own day, our own lives, and the life of all Israel, and let us say: Amen

Let his great name be blessed for ever and ever.

Let the name of the Holy One, blessed is He, be glorified, exalted, and honored, though He is beyond all the praises, songs, and adorations we can utter, and let us say: Amen

For us and for all Israel, may the blessings of peace and the promise of life come true, and let us say: Amen

May He who causes peace to reign in the high heavens let peace descend on us, on all Israel and all the world, and let us say: Amen

May the Source of peace send peace upon all who mourn, and comfort to all who are bereaved. Amen.

Litany of Thanksgiving and Remembrance (Responsively, standing)

Almighty God, maker of heaven and earth, creator of all things,
We turn to you for comfort in loss, strength in perseverance, and hope for the future.

All Hear our prayer, gracious God.

For classmates who have gone before us. For the gifts of friendships that never end.

For the joys and sorrows we have shared together.

All We give you thanks, O God.

For their courage in darkness, strength in adversity, and the peace that is now theirs.

All We give you thanks, O God.

For the contributions they have made in college and in the years beyond, to their communities, the nation and the world.

All We give you thanks, O God.

In thanksgiving may we carry on the work they began, and rejoice in our memories of them.

All Hear our prayer, O gracious God.

For those left behind – parents, wives, partners, children, family, and friends – that they may be sustained in their grief by your abiding care and comforted by the love that transcends death.

All Hear our prayer, gracious God.

Closing Hymn “O God Our Help in Ages Past”

St. Anne

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. O God, our help in ages past,
our hope, for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast,
and our eternal home. | 2. Under the shadow of thy throne
thy saints have dwelt secure;
sufficient is thine arm alone,
and our defense is sure. |
| 3. Before the hills in order stood
or earth received her frame,
from everlasting thou art God,
to endless years the same. | 4. A thousand ages in thy sight
are like an evening gone;
short as the watch that ends the night
before the rising sun. |
| 5. Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
bears all our years away;
they fly, forgotten, as a dream
dies at the opening day. | 6. O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
be thou our guide while life shall last,
and our eternal home. |

Benediction

The Lord bless you and keep you,
The Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you.
The Lord lift up the light of his countenance upon you,
And give you, our loved ones, and our honored dead,

Peace, this day, and forever.
(All) Amen.
